Dear Parents/Carers

As you will be aware there is increasing speculation about when, and how, schools will re-open. The Prime Minister is due to make an announcement to the nation on Sunday regarding the Government's 'road map' to easing lock down measures and this may include a statement regarding schools.

If it does, please do not rush to contact school immediately. We do not know any more than you do at this stage, as we will be hearing the news the same time. Rest assured we will contact you as soon as it is possible to do so; once we have been given appropriate advice and guidance and have further information to share.

Take care.

Yours sincerely

Sue Goodsell
