Dear Parents/Carers,

Reception Phonics & Early Reading Workshops

Tuesday 23rd September at 6.00pm or Wednesday 24th September at 9.00am

We are only three weeks into the school year, and already the Reception classrooms are full of activity, excitement, and new friendships.

We would like to invite you to a Phonics and Early Reading Workshop on either:

Tuesday 23rd September at 6:00pm, or Wednesday 24th September at 9:00am.

You only need to attend one session.

These informal but important workshops will give you an overview of how we teach early reading and writing. We will introduce our phonics scheme, explain how home reading books are used, and share examples of how children's writing develops throughout Reception. You'll also have the chance to look at the books your child will be using and talk with staff about practical ways to support learning at home.

We strongly encourage all parents and carers to attend—even if you have previously had a child in Reception—as the information is specific to this year's approach. Please note that the workshop is not suitable for children, so we kindly ask that they do not attend.

To help us prepare, please complete and return the reply slip below, indicating which session you will be joining.

Yours sincerely,
Rachel Frisby
